A conference is to take place in the near future in Budapest between representatives of Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria, Rumania and Czechoslovakia for the purpose of working out new routes for the airlines of these satellite countries. Under this plan the planes of each country's airlines would make a circuit of many of the major cities of several of the countries involved instead of making single-stop round trips as at present. The purpose of the new arrangement would be the economy in gasoline and aircraft which the more extensive flights would mean. The Czechoslovak Air Lines intends to use Il'yushin airplanes for these flights
